Sub: Intimation regarding visit of Income Tax Department officials

Dear Sir/Madam,

Pursuant to Regulation 30 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, we wish to inform that a team of officers from the Income Tax Department visited the premises of the Company yesterday and is presently continuing with the proceedings at the Company's premises.

At present, the Directors and Senior Management of the Company are inside the office premises and are attending to the officers. Their mobile phones are presently switched off and access to the office premises is restricted. Consequently, the Company is presently unable to establish communication with them or obtain further information regarding the nature and scope of the proceedings.

The Company is closely monitoring the situation and is making efforts to obtain confirmed information.

In view of the prevailing circumstances, the Company is assessing the situation and examining the appropriate course of action in relation to the conduct of the AGM as scheduled. The Company shall keep the Stock Exchange informed of any material development in this regard as and when the position becomes clear.

This is for your information and records.

Thanking you,

For Balgopal Commercial Limited
